Rear Admiral Laurence H. Frost
Director of Naval Intelligence
Department of the Navy
Washington, D. C.

Dear Admiral Frost:

I wish to thank you for your letter bringing Brigadier [redacted] (Retired) to my attention for possible utilization in our organization. [redacted] of course, is well known to us through his activity in CIA from 1953-1957; in fact, he recently has been directly in contact with several senior officers of the Agency to inform them of his retirement from the Service and of his intention to settle in [redacted]

The possibility of using [redacted] in some support capacity was thoroughly explored with him, and he has been informed how to contact my people after he has established himself in [redacted]. I am also notifying my representative in [redacted] to call on him four to six months from now when [redacted] anticipates he will be completely settled and will have completed his language study. I am certain that at that time our [redacted] people will attempt to utilize his services in the best manner possible.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
